

[campus]OrléoN

[campus]OrléoN is a network that is committed to the research capacities and qualities of society. Researchers (academics, (external) PhD. students, professionals, artists, consultants, journalists, policy makers, ...) are warmly invited to join either as individuals or via their organization.

Creating a market place for research productions as well as a social community for researchers who operate mostly outside of the context of a university requires organization and coordination, both in the physical and virtual parts of the network. To make this possible, membership of [campus]OrléoN is subject to an annual fee.*

Individual membership [campus]OrléoN

Individual membership costs annually

- € 150,= (ex VAT) for people in OECD countries
- € 35,= (ex VAT) for people in non-OECD countries

It comprises:

- access to everything [campus]OrléoN has to offer regarding research (individual support and courses, both on an intellectual and procedural level)
- participation in two events for free, of which you can choose between
  - network meetings for (external) PhD. students
  - workshops in academic entrepreneurship
  - thematic conferences
- 10% discount on several courses
- (if desired) support from the network in your entrepreneurship in the form of
  - active mediation as well as administrative and logistical support of the realization of your entrepreneurship (against remittance of 25% of your turnover)
  - joint entrepreneurship (per joint project we make a new business agreement)
- use of the website, including the possibility of your own profile page and the use of advanced navigation tools.

Organizational membership [campus]OrléoN

Organizational membership (fee in consultation) comprises

- the advantages of an individual membership for all members of the organization
- a free RQ-scan to establish the baseline of research intensity and quality of the organization
- 10% discount on strategic research and advice

Is your interest aroused? Request a registration form for individual membership or contact [campus]OrléoN for an exploratory interview about an organizational membership via campus@orleon.nl.

* Membership covers a calendar year. Annually the continuation of your membership is reviewed.